Self-Certification Requirement

Telephone/Document Inspection Verification Requirements
Self-Certification Requirements

After review of the eligibility criteria, along with possible ways to verify the criteria, it was determined that much of the verification was readily available through a number of agencies or sources. In some cases, definitive verification is required, for example eligibility to work (I-9 requirements under IRCA) and Selective Service Registration or exemption for males.

WIA allows for self-certification to verify those eligibility items that in rare cases are not verifiable or may cause undue hardship for applicants to obtain.

Because most eligibility requirements can be verified by other sources, the use of self-certification, also known as “self-attestation”, is highly restricted. Self-certification is not allowed as a verifiable source of documentation for the following:

All Categories:
- Individual/Family Income
- Individual Status/Family Size
- Cash Public Assistance
- SNAP (Food Stamps)
- Homeless
- Supported Foster Child
- Person with Disability

Youth
- Pregnant or Parenting
- School Dropout
- Offender
- Homeless or Runaway
- Serious Barriers to Employment as Identified by Local Board (5% Exception)

Dislocated Worker
- Terminated/Laid Off/Received Notice of Termination or Layoff
- Unlikely to Return
- Permanent Closure of Plant/Facility/Enterprise or Substantial Layoff
- General Announcement of Closure

The only circumstance in which self-certification is allowed:

- Dislocated Workers, Formerly Self-Employed/Currently Unemployed.
  - The self-certification must be accompanied by documentation that supports the applicant’s claim.

An example of the use of the Self-Certification Form for a Dislocated Worker, Self-Employed: If an applicant states that he/she that he or she was self-employed but is no longer self-employed, the blank spaces following the words “I certify, under penalty of law, that the following information is true” must be completed. For example:
“I was in business for myself as (description or name of business) until (Month) (Year), at which point I closed my business due to lack of profitability. I have had no income from my business since that time. This business was my primary source of income.”

The Self-Certification form must be accompanied by some documentation proving that the applicant was self-employed, such as bank statements, tax returns or statements from former customers, and some proof that his or her business no longer exists, such as a bankruptcy statement, notification of close of business to federal, state or local revenue (tax) agency, bill of sale for the business, or statements from former clients or customers.

In other words, the client must produce some documentation that he or she had a business, was the primary owner of the business, received his or her primary income from that business and that the business no longer exists or that the applicant is no longer its primary owner.

Note that part-time jobs or businesses that were not the applicant’s primary source of income are not counted as “self-employment.” For example, if the applicant ran a small landscaping business in addition to his or her primary employment, and then discontinued landscaping because of lack of customers, the applicant was not “self-employed.” If the applicant subsequently lost his or her primary employment, the applicant could be served as an “Adult” or “Dislocated Worker” depending upon his or her circumstances.

NOTE: When using the “Self-Certification” form, the “Staff Signature/Date” found in the “Certification” block must be completed. It is a local decision as to the completion of the “Reviewer’s Signature/Date”.

Telephone/Document Inspection Verification Requirements

WIA eligibility criteria may be verified by telephone contacts with recognized governmental or social service agencies, or by document inspection. The information obtained must be verified and recorded on the Telephone/Document Inspection Verification form. Information recorded must be adequate to enable a monitor or auditor to trace back to the cognizant agency or the document used. Telephone verification must include the name of the agency representative providing the verification information.

In some cases, the information provided by an agency through telephone contact may be sufficient to satisfy multiple WIA eligibility criteria. For example, verification that an applicant has been determined eligible to receive TANF can satisfy the requirement for Youth program eligibility.

Verification of eligibility through document inspection is appropriate when documents cannot or may not be machine-copied.

Agencies that may assist in verifying via telephone are as follows:

- Local Schools
- Social Security Administration
- Veterans Administration
- Social Services agencies
- Medical and health facilities
- Vocational rehabilitation facilities
- Drug and alcohol rehabilitation facilities
- Housing authorities
- Homeless shelters
- Judicial agencies and institutions
- Other State and local government agencies

When WIA eligibility verification is accomplished via telephone or document inspection, Local Workforce Investment Areas are required to use a standardized form, such as the example on page two for monitoring and audit purposes.
